The Education Initiative is based in two localities: 1) a rural indigenous community and 2) an urban squatters' settlement. Both localities, in the state of Morelos, Mexico, are considered vulnerable populations with high drop-out rates starting after elementary schools. This program supports children in the transition from elementary to secondary school and through completion. Children are selected more than on their academic accomplishments on their community involvement and commitment. The program has a significant ripple effect, though only supporting 30 kids, it impacts whole families and communities. This program is operated and jointly supervised by our program partner, Comunidad A.C., an accredited member of the Mexican Council of Community Foundations.

ALEM originally began as a vocational training and placement program for people with disabilities. Among other reasons because of the lack of an accessible transportation system in Cuernavaca, ALEM became a productive program repairing wheelchairs for this vulnerable population (In Mexico over 50% of People with Disabilities live in situation of poverty). Karitas/ALEM provide:
" Subsidized wheelchair repair benefitting 3,500 people plus their families each year across 6 states of Mexico.
" Full-time employment and constant training for 12 People with Disabilities
Karitas/ALEM works in collaboration with local rotary clubs and districts. ALEM is operated jointly with ALEM, a register and recognized Mexican social organization.
